

Please do not weaken the do not call act. I am 68 years old and those telephone solicitors were driving us up the wall. We missed calls from family and friends as we wouldn't answer the telephone thinking it was one of these pushy people. If anything, the act should be broadened to include these collections agencies. They are told that they have the wrong party and if they want to go to court, lets go. But they consistently call thinking they are right.
